Merci's take-charge personality helps her to succeed as a scholarship student living in the Cuban-American community in South Florida with her extended family in this coming-of-age tale about family ties and the perils of middle school. Winner of the 2019 Newbery Medal. Books available at the Circulation Desk.

Beyond the Breaking News - Interested in participating in a friendly exchange of ideas about current political events? Join a lively discussion of news events for residents interested in domestic and foreign policy issues and what's driving them. Visit our website for more information and registration.

Cortlandt Stamp Club - Join a group of worldwide stamp collectors to trade stamps, have talks on various topics, give demonstrations, and more. Adults, teens, and youths under 12 with adult are welcomed. No registration required.

St. Patrick's Day Pom Pom Vase - Make a cute shamrocks and pom-pom vase to help celebrate St. Patrick's Day! Visit our website to register.

Navigating College Admissions Successfully in 2023 - We are offering this Zoom presentation to help families understand how the lingering effects from the pandemic have changed the college admissions landscape and how it affects Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen. The presentation will be led by Ron Feuchs and Jackie Tepper, partners at Stand Out For College, LLC. (www.standoutforcollege.com) Visit our website to register.

How to Drastically Cut Costs in Difficult Times - Rick Nathan, a consumer advocate and former loan officer, will explain how to save thousands of dollars. Topics to include investing in no-load mutual funds, the benefits of credit unions, purchasing used cars, home and life insurance, methods to reduce school and county taxes, and more. Visit our website to register.

How to Go Through College Without Going Broke - Richard Nathan, consumer advocate and former loan officer, will discuss how the student, the parent, and the grandparent can avoid large college loans. Topics to include FAFSA; different types of grants, loans, and scholarship sources; work study programs; federal versus private loans, problems of parent plus loans, refinance loans; 529 plans; and Navient lawsuit. Visit our website to register.

Teen Job Search Workshop - Teen Job Search Tips, Applications, Resumes & More! A free virtual workshop conducted by a professional Career Coach that will help you land a part-time or summer job. Visit our website to register.

Passport Evening at the Library - Do you need a U.S. Passport? Is your existing passport more than 15 years old? Are you changing from a minor to an adult? Come to the library to process your passport application for a new passport (adult renewals can only be processed through the U.S. Postal Service). For questions or to make an appointment for a specific time, call the library at (914) 739-5654. Appointments are preferred. Walk-ins will be accepted if there is availability.

The Read-Through: A Play-Reading Group - Join the Hendrick Hudson Free Library's play-reading group led by library staff member, Anna DeAngelis. Participants will read through scripts from plays, much like actors do when first preparing for a production. Our group will not culminate in a performance--our goal is to simply have fun. Inexperienced and experienced readers are welcomed. Registration begins February 20. Copies of the play will be available at the Circulation Desk. March's play: "Lost in Yonkers," by Neil Simon. Visit our website to register.
