

ART EXHIBIT POLICY

Mission Statement

The Hendrick Hudson Free Library Community Room & Corridor Galleries exhibit professional-quality work by area artists for the purpose of increasing public awareness of the visual arts. Works chosen for the gallery present a wide variety of art that is appropriate for a public space used by all ages.

- Contact Constance Dyckman for display availability before filling out the application conniedyckman@gmail.com or 914-739-5654 x 517
- All work must be ready to hang. The “Gallery System” is in place with cables and hooks which accept wired back pieces. THIS IS THE ONLY ACCEPTED MOUNTING METHOD. The exhibitor is cautioned that if other than wired back pieces are used, there may be difficulty with the installation.
- Transportation of artwork to and from the Library is the responsibility of the exhibitor. The exhibitor must be present for the installation and removal of an exhibit.
- Prices may be displayed on individual works.
- In return for the opportunity to exhibit at the Library, a donation equivalent to 10% of the sale price is requested.
- No items listed for sale may be removed during the exhibit.
- The Library will provide some publicity about the exhibit and will include promotion such as the library newsletter, library website, and social media. The exhibitor may provide additional promotional material, such as artist produced postcards. Artists are encouraged to promote their exhibit through invitations and announcements.
- Artists are welcome to have a reception. First Saturday and Sunday afternoons of the month are available but must be booked in advance. Receptions are to be open to the public as well as invited guests. The exhibitors are to provide a table covering, paper goods, and all food at their own expense. Alcohol is not permitted.

- Exhibits in the community room shall be available to the general public only when no other programs or meetings are in session. No meetings shall be interrupted to set-up, remove, or to view any exhibit while a program or a meeting is in session.
- The exhibitors must provide a certificate of insurance or sign an insurance waiver for works displayed. The Library is not responsible for any damage to or theft of works on exhibit. If complete security is a concern, it is recommended that the artist provide a gallery sitter. When staff is not present on the 2nd floor, the community room will be locked and a sign posted directing the public to obtain a key to view the exhibit. The risk of loss, theft or damage will be held by the exhibitor.
