- The Library Director or Children's Librarian reserves the right to approve or disapprove each application for the use of the Children's Program Room. They may impose added restrictions deemed appropriate for a particular program or use.
- The Library Director or Children's Librarian may deny, rescind, or cancel any application when it is deemed to be in the interest of the Library to do so. Failure to observe regulations governing the use of the Children's Program Room may result in denial of use in the future.
