Yarn, crochet hooks, and instructions will be provided. Knitting needles are not included, but feel free to bring your own. Registration for one or multiple sessions is required to attend.

Italian Conversation Class - Is a trip to Italy in your future? Familiarize yourself in this class with the basics of Italian language and culture with local resident Luca Vuolo, an experienced Romance language tutor and NYC teacher. No experience necessary and language speakers welcome as well! Spots available for the Tuesday morning class. Registration is for 8 sessions.

An Afternoon of Food, Fun, and Favorites - Do you like food? Do you like having fun? Do you have a favorite recipe that you are willing to share with others? Then this program is for you! Each program will have a specific theme. For October, choose a recipe that includes anything squash- or pumpkin-related from your own recipe collection or from a borrowed library cookbook. Registration begins September 20 and will be open to the first 20 registrants. Once registered, drop off at the library a copy of your chosen recipe or E-mail it to cmorreale@wlsmail.org by no later than September 30. Then make your chosen recipe and bring it to the program to share with other participants for a pot-luck feast! All dishware, utensils, napkins, and coffee/tea will be provided by the library. Note: Each participant will receive a small binder filled with the shared themed recipes of the day.

AARP Defensive Driving - Bharat Jani will be teaching this class. Registration begins September 20. A $30 materials fee ($25 for current AARP members with member number written on check) is due by October 3. Checks or money orders only made payable to AARP. Bring a lunch/snack, driver's license, AARP membership card, and pen. Limited space.

Author Talk with Lyn Liao Butler - She's back! Local author Lyn Liao Butler, author of five books, will lead a discussion on one of her newest books entitled Crazy Bao You. The word "Bao" in the title of Ms. Butler's book is a pun. Bao are delicious Chinese stuffed dumplings that can be made in a variety of ways. Participants are encouraged (not mandated!) to make a batch of bao to share with other participants during this book discussion. Books will be available for purchase and signing following the book discussion. Visit our website to register.

Tuesday Night Bingo - Spend an evening out playing Bingo with friends. Token prizes will be given to all winners. Visit our website to register.

Flu Shot Clinic - Need a flu shot? Come on in! A pharmacist from Save Mor Pharmacy will be on site to administer flu shot vaccines. No registration required. Note: Please remember to bring your insurance card(s).

Three Keys to Unlock the Power of Your Online Marketing - Join Stephanie Unger, educator and lecturer, to learn the online tools you can use to help market yourself with free resources. Learn how to stay organized and connected to your audience, discover an easy way to generate leads, and maximize efforts when promoting yourself. Visit our website to register.

Traditional Crafts with Jan Aiello: Kaleidoscopes! - This craft was so popular last year that we have to offer it again! Create your own really cool kaleidoscope in this two-part class (October 11 and 18) with professional artist Jan Aiello, using a little bit of this and a little bit of that--along with some basic math skills and your own creativity. You will be amazed at just how beautiful and unique your kaleidoscope will be! Participants are expected to attend both classes. Visit our website to register. A $5 materials fee is due by October 10. Limited seating.

United States National Parks Virtual Tour - Don't miss this exceptional opportunity to delve into the natural wonders that define the soul of America with our speaker and professional traveler, Chris McCormack. Join Chris for an awe-inspiring evening as the Hendrick Hudson Free Library proudly presents a captivating travel program on the renowned U.S. National Parks. Not only will you learn how to save some money for your trip, but you will also be immersed in the beauty and wonder of America's most cherished natural treasures. Visit our website to register.

Cello Performance with Howard Cohen - Howard Cohen, accomplished cellist, performing Bach to the Beatles. Musical selections to include the following genres: classical, jazz, klezmer, popular standards, and Broadway melodies. No registration required.

Millennial Book Club - Join staff member and fellow millennial, Katie Caracci, for a NEW book club for book lovers ages 25-40. October's book is The Turn of the Key by Ruth Ware--a great pick for SPOOKY SZN! Meeting will be held upstairs in the library's Conference Room (cushy chairs!), and wine and charcuterie will be provided. Comfy attire is encouraged :) Books are available at the Circulation Desk. Ebooks and audiobooks are available through the Libby app.

Traditional Crafts with Jan Aiello: Soldered Glass Pendant/Earrings - In this two-week class (October 25 and November 1), Jan Aiello, professional artist and educator, will be teaching participants how to make a beautiful pendant and earrings using cut glass and solder. Participants are expected to attend both classes. Visit our website to register. A $5 materials fee is due by October 24. Limited seating.

Qi-Gong for Health via Zoom - In this four-week class (October 27; November 3, 10, 17), Jian-Yang Rong, Certified Qi-Gong Therapist and Instructor, will guide participants in the art of Qi-Gong through energy and gentle body movement for healing the body, mind, and emotions. Registration begins September 20. The Zoom invitation will be sent out one day prior to each session. Note: It is expected that participants will attend all four sessions. Note: This program is co-sponsored with the Hudson Valley Hospital Center and Hendrick Hudson Free Library.

Navigating College Admissions Successfully in 2023 - This Zoom program will cover current college admissions trends, the importance of researching and visiting colleges to find schools that can be a good fit for your child, a timeline and other action steps that can be taken to make this fall productive and help reduce the stress around the college admissions process. We'll examine the holistic admissions review process, what admissions officers consider important when they review applicants, and how students can position themselves to develop a compelling narrative to increase their chances for admission. We will also discuss the importance of community service, how it can provide an opportunity for personal growth and a way to showcase a student's character. Admissions officers place great emphasis on a student's character and how the student has been able to give back and help others. This program is recommended for parents and their high school teens.

BINGO by the Bottle FUNdraiser - Friday, October 27th at 6:30 p.m.

Back by popular demand! Join us for a fun and exciting evening of BINGO and booze here at the library! Come enjoy an adult evening out while supporting the programs and services of your community library. There will be up to 8 games played, plenty of chances to win one of our drink-inspired prizes! Also available beginning October 1st are tickets for our raffle basket ($5.00 per ticket). Stop by the library to enter for a chance to win. The winner will be drawn at the event, but need not be present to win. If that isn't enough to entice you, the emcees will be the hilarious Keenan sisters, Clare Carey and Beth Rende! This event fills up quickly, so grab your friends and register today! Visit our website for more details and to register.
